DIVISIONAL SIMPOSIUM – DIVISION 4

Friday (Aug, 17) Room “Bora-Bora III”

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Schedule</th>
<th>ID</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Presenter</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>13:30 – 13:40</td>
<td>--</td>
<td>Opening</td>
<td>Conveners</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13:55 – 14:10</td>
<td>1114</td>
<td>Being a good ‘soil farmer’? The uneasy relation between “soil health” and “good farming” in British agriculture.</td>
<td>Anna Krzywoszynska</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14:10 – 14:25</td>
<td>2410</td>
<td>Policy Distortion, Farm Size, and the Overuse of Agricultural Chemicals in China</td>
<td>Baojing Gu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14:25 – 14:40</td>
<td>835</td>
<td>Research Development and Future Prospects on Soil Pollution and Remediation in China</td>
<td>Yongming Luo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14:40 – 14:55</td>
<td>486</td>
<td>The importance of soil information in land use planning in the Sardinia region, Italy</td>
<td>Andrea Vacca</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14:55 – 15:10</td>
<td>505</td>
<td>The Maya Anthropocene: Soils, Paleosols, and ancient Agriculture (but no Terra Preta) in the Maya Lowlands</td>
<td>Timothy Beach</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15:10 – 15:25</td>
<td>3186</td>
<td>Traditional Māori agriculture: kūmara (Ipomoea batatas) origin, soil amelioration techniques, and Māori kūmara systems in Aotearoa (New Zealand)</td>
<td>Charles Hyland</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15:25 – 15:40</td>
<td>--</td>
<td>Closing</td>
<td>Conveners</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>